

The Dakota Conference office employees are hard at work preparing a meaningful Campmeeting for the constituents. If you cannot make it in person this year, consider watching the livestream—the link will be available on our website next week.

This abbreviated issue of the Dakota Dispatch will contain information regarding Campmeeting, Dakota Summer Camps, and other items.

SPEAKER: CRAIG CARR

DAKOTA CAMPMEETING

Craig Carr is a Jesus-follower, husband, father, photographer, and marathoner who thinks it's fun to run every day. He earned a bachelor's in business administration from Union College, a master's of divinity from Andrews University, and a doctorate of ministry from Denver Seminary. Craig and his wife Carisa, also a Union graduate, recently returned to Lincoln where he serves as ministerial director of the Mid-America Union and chief encouragement officer for Restore the Joy of My Vocation. The couple have two grown children.

Speaking Schedule:

Thursday, June 1: 8:30 - 9:45a
2:00 - 3:15p

Esther R. Knott has served as a pastor for more than 28 years and is the associate director for the North American Division Ministerial Association. She also serves as the director of the master's in pastoral ministry program at Andrews University. Esther has lived in four countries. Her parents were converted to the Adventist faith, and it was through their example that she learned to live intentionally as a contagious Adventist. She is married to Ronald Alan Knott, who is director of Andrews University Press. Their daughter and son-in-law live in Denver: Olivia is a software engineer working as a creative technologist at Hovercraft, and Ivan Ruiz-Knott is a founding partner of Types and Symbols—an Adventist design studio.

Speaking Schedule:

Thursday, June 1: 10:00 - 11:15a
3:30 - 4:45p
Friday, June 2: 11:30 - 12:40p

Tim Roosenberg has studied prophecy for the majority of his life and has discovered that following the interpretation techniques of the early church and the reformers results in the most reliable and logical understanding of Bible prophecies. He received his bachelor's degree from Southwestern Adventist University and his master's degree from Andrews University. He currently works for the Idaho Conference as their evangelist. Tim is married to Karen, is a father of four, loves the great outdoors, and is the author of the book Islam and Christianity in Prophecy: a study of Daniel 11. He is also a frequent speaker at Daniel 11 conferences.

DAKOTA CAMPMEETING

Hugo Yin is a Christian singer, author, and inspirational speaker born in Los Angeles, California. In 2008, he decided to follow his calling to be a full-time music minister, and in the same year married his wife, Addi Morales, with whom he shares his calling. Yin has traveled extensively, singing about how the Lord has saved and changed his life. In 2019, he released his first book: an autobiography that details his life as a secular musician, a celebrity bodyguard, and how it all came together after finally finding his father who had abandoned him and his mother.

Inspire others. Become a Teacher in Dakota

Teaching is much more than a job; it is a calling with deep purpose. And teaching in a Adventist school means you also inspire students to find their own true purpose in God. Experience the satisfaction of challenging youth to dream big and to make those dreams come true. Become an Adventist teacher and inspire in each student a life of faith, wisdom, and service.
